

1475-1650 AD

Early Modern English

CAXTON and printing. Renaissance humanism: revived study of Greek and Latin classics. SPENSER, MILTON SHAKESPEARE, biblical translators.

Age of discovery and exploration Great vowel shift and loss of final -e. Beginning of standardized spelling. Extensive borrowings from Latin, some from Greek. Changes in grammar, especially verb system.

1475

1912 Dates J-BK

France

Edward IV of England
was in alliance with Burgundy
He invaded France in 1475

1475 AD

REGIOMONTANUS arrived in Rome, but one year later he died in the epidemic. Pope Sixtus II survived the plague, but his plans for Cal reform died with Regiomontanus.

1475 A.D.

Symbols for plus and minus appear.

1475

The subjugation of the CHIMU people brought the northern coast of Peru under Inca control by 1475 (and with it the road network and the metal and textile skills of the Chimu)

1475-1494

Jews Hated.

Italy

Bernardinus da Feltre
preaches against Jews.
Jews expelled from several towns

1475

Jan 14th

Italy

Blood libel of Trent

1475

Beginning of Hebrew printing (RASHI printed in REGGIO di CALABRIA)

1475

1912 Dates J-BK

The Meistersingers flourished
in Germany

1475

Edward IV invaded ^{England} France.
He signed seven year truce
with Louis XI.

1475

MICHELANGELO BUONARROTI
was born in Florence.

He died in his 90th year.
c/1564